Greetings,

Washington Alliance For Life picked up five (*) new events this year, in all honesty we were not planning on attending the Washington State Fair. That all changed just a few weeks before the Fair started. We were very thankful for that!! Many people sought us out as we were not in the space we have been in for several years. Many, many, many people came by and said "glad you are here!" Fortunately, that is all behind us now and "Thank you to The WSF Board of Directors".

July 19th – Treats & Binkies Community baby shower was held at the Orting Park. Live Musi, face painting, balloons and "Free" drawings, for gift cards from several local businesses! Signage was out announcing the community baby shower. Families just kind of showed up and they were given tickets to visit the different booth/tables. If we drew their ticket they received a gift card, etc. Special thank you to Esther Ripplinger, President & CEO of Human Life of Washington who partnered with Washington Alliance for Life.

A young woman shared she had an abortion at the age of seventeen, she was scared and afraid. I hugged her, she added that she is now a Christian and knows that God has forgiven Her! Treats & Binkies July 19th

I spoke with two women, one woman asked if we protest at the abortion clinics. I said "No, we are here to help girls or women, who choose to have their baby, but have 'No Community'. After I said that I could literally see these women turn from hostility into gratefulness. I showed them the Washington Alliance For Life Resource Brochure which comes in English, Spanish and Russian. I offered them some candy and a Bible. They took some candy and said they were pagan and declined the offer for the Bible. I told them about the movie "Unplanned" and I said "After watching the movie I understood the protests (not graphic) and prayer and encouraged them to see the movie". One lady took one of the 12-week baby models and we bid each other farewell. I hope and pray to see these women next year. Please pray for these women.

Mosaic (Tacoma's Art & Cultural Festival) July 25-27

A grandmother shared that her son and his girlfriend found out they were pregnant, she wasn't sure she wanted to keep the baby and considered abortion. I was against it. After a lot of thought they decided to keep the baby. Now, I have a beautiful grandson. Thank you, Lord! Pierce County Fair Aug 7-10

A young woman said she saw our booth last year, and just discovered she was pregnant! Pierce County Fair Aug 7-10

A young woman walked by slowly and said "I adopted my cousin's baby". I would like to volunteer; she left her business card. Pierce County Fair Aug 7-10

Several people walked by and thanked us for being here. WSF August 29-Sept 1

A woman picked up some brochures, and asked if we had anything on domestic abuse. I said "no, sorry". I told her I could pray for her daughter, please pray for Breanna, she lives in California. WSF August 29-Sept 1

A gal came by, she was expecting and very excited to learn her baby was completely developed. WSF August 29-Sept 1

A grandma came by excited about our booth and very concerned about her two grandsons, I prayed for the one who has seizures. Please pray. WSF Aug 29-Sept 1
